Welcome to the 2018 Hebridean Princess Cruise Directory

The year 2018 will be a momentous occasion for Hebridean Island Cruises as we celebrate the 'Pearl Anniversary' of Hebridean Princess when she embarks on her 30th cruising season.

Naturally, such a milestone should not go unmarked and we will therefore be replicating itineraries from our inaugural year of 1989, together with cruises from the tenth season of 1998 and the twentieth season of 2008. These sailings are annotated with our special 30th Anniversary Logo on each respective cruise page.

But our Pearl Anniversary celebrations are not just confined to cruises from seasons gone by. The summer schedule will see Hebridean Princess venture to the south coast of England, including the Isles of Scilly and the Channel Islands as well as Northern France and for the first time, Belgium.

You will be able conclude from this Cruise Directory that there is a true medley of itineraries available during 2018. We want you to relax and be cossetted in the luxurious surroundings of the finest Country House Hotel, as the most spectacular scenery in the British Isles, Northern France and Belgium glides gently by in an ever-changing and breath taking panorama. This unique and elegant holiday experience can only be found on board Hebridean Princess.

With best wishes.

Crew

At Hebridean Island Cruises we believe it is simply not possible to look after large numbers of guests properly and give them the really personal service that differentiates an extraordinary holiday from a merely good one. That is why, on Hebridean Princess, you will find only 50 like-minded guests and no fewer than 38 crew.

If you would like to be known by your name within moments of stepping on board, to have your smallest preferences remembered, then mass-market style cruising will never be a satisfactory alternative.

Everything we do receives the same level of care and attention; from the carefully conceived shore visits to the spectacular overnight anchorages, the exquisite menus and the unique and individually designed cabins, every little detail aims to ensure that the whole experience is so complete that you will never even notice.

Discreet service is the bedrock of our reputation and the uncannily accurate anticipation of your needs is a skill that our crew has developed into almost an art form.

For us, resoluteness in the pursuit of perfection is something for which, in our view, there is no alternative. Behind the scenes we will be striving day and night to ensure that yours is the best holiday you have taken.

Your job is to simply sit back, relax and enjoy - Hebridean style!

Look-Out Lounge

Tiree Lounge Bar

Life on board – public rooms

After an energetic walk ashore, the comfort and homeliness of Hebridean Princess welcomes you back as though to your own home; and that is how we, and more importantly our guests, like to think of this unusual little ship. ‘Like home but better’ is how she has been described.

The public rooms on board Hebridean Princess offer a truly cosy and welcoming atmosphere.

The Tiree Lounge, with its intimate bar, is the social focal point; beautifully designed and filled with soft armchairs and welcoming sofas providing cosy areas grouped around perhaps the most extraordinary feature of the ship – a brick inglenook fireplace!

Tiree Lounge

Library

'A Floating Country House' is how we have described Hebridean Princess for many years. Fifty like-minded guests mix in a convivial atmosphere and create a house party mood.

In the peaceful wood-panelled Library a masculine feel has been created, using leather, unique upholstery and dark woods and should a spot of solitude appeal, there is a fine selection of reference and general interest books to be enjoyed.

The soft tones furnishing the Look-Out Lounge flow seamlessly from the colour palette in the foyer areas, creating a relaxing space to take in the stunning views.

Painted, rattan furniture brings a casual feel to the Conservatory and the natural look has been complemented by the beautifully restored teak flooring. A wonderfully calm space to enjoy the scenery.

The emphasis on low key entertainment is complemented by the gentle art of conversation and the certain knowledge that fellow guests have chosen this style of holiday as much for what it doesn't offer as for what it does.

Columba Restaurant

Dining and cuisine

The Columba Restaurant, with its cherry-wood panelling, fine artworks and discreet lighting is a romantic venue to enjoy the genial ambiance. Single-sitting dining means that your designated table for two awaits and, for solo travellers, the senior Officers invite guests to join them in convivial groups.

Columba Restaurant - Gala Dinner

Skye Deck Barbeque

Breakfast Buffet

It is said that sea air stimulates the appetite and it is certainly our experience that, after a morning or afternoon ashore, guests are eager to be taken to the very finest destinations of haute cuisine created by a talented brigade of chefs.

Only the freshest and finest ingredients are used in our menu choices, most of which are procured from local suppliers.

Dinners and most lunches are served in the elegant Columba Restaurant, through whose large windows the scenery glides by as you dine. On occasions, lunch may be served al fresco and, on certain cruises, Chef will take his skills ashore and produce a legendary Hebridean picnic – an extraordinary contrast to the rugged scenery in which it will be served.

Breakfasts are informal and are as healthy or as hearty as you choose with fresh fruit, home-baked breads, cooked Scottish fayre and of course, Chef's own take on that Scottish staple (porridge), with or without a wee dram!

Our Gala Dinners are sparkling occasions, from the Champagne reception in the Tiree Lounge to a gourmet dinner – and no cruise would be complete without a traditional recital of Robert Burns' Address to the Haggis!

Address to the Haggis

Going ashore

Unlike most cruise ships, a Hebridean Princess cruise includes all shore visits. From cultural to historical, serious walking and biking to simply strolling around the bay, the opportunities to experience the peace are endless.

Tender Shuttle Service

On most days Hebridean Princess berths or anchors in different locations both morning and afternoon, whilst the ship's tenders are on hand to operate a shuttle service ashore. Should you choose to wander at will, the small boats are always available to transport you back on board if the yearning for a glass of something or chef's afternoon tea prove too hard to resist.

Some of the islands we visit are so off the beaten track that no landing place is available. We will then use our special beach landing craft for an exciting chance to wander an uninhabited island or headland.

The effects of the Gulf Stream bring a warmth and a fertility to this region that make it quite unlike any other in the British Isles.

Our long-standing connections in this remote corner of the kingdom enable us to arrange visits to privately owned castles and gardens, with an opportunity to talk to the owners and enjoy the different dimension of a visit that is utterly personal.

Small numbers and common interests ensure that visits ashore are fascinating, informative and hugely enjoyable.

Knowledgeable guides

No cruise on board Hebridean Princess would be complete without our specially selected guides, who have sailed with us for a number of years, contributing their particular spheres of expertise and interest to enrich your stay on board and make your holiday experience even more special.

A highly knowledgeable and experienced guide accompanies guests for the duration of each cruise, with three on 'Footloose' walking itineraries and two on the wildlife and cycling cruises, always there to offer information and an occasional helping hand. Single guests can enjoy their company at dinner, when they join an Officer's table in the Columba Restaurant. After-dinner talks, over coffee and petit fours, are enjoyable moments, outlining the next day's activities and shedding fresh light on the unique regions through which we sail.

Enriching guest speakers

The enrichment of discovery and thrill of knowledge put Hebridean Princess cruises in a category of their own.

Our on board speakers are chosen precisely because they are among some of the best authorities in their field. Passionate about their subject, these captivating orators bring each cruise alive and are delighted to share their knowledge with their fellow guests - a true meeting of minds.

During our 2018 season Guest Speakers will accompany 8 specially selected cruises.

Partnerships

THE ARTS SOCIETY

The Arts Society's (NADFAS) affiliation with Hebridean Island Cruises, through The Arts Society Tours, ensures that its members who enjoy luxury small ship cruising, can visit cultural destinations, with excellent lecturers in the company of like-minded people.

The Arts Society was founded in 1968 and celebrates its 50th anniversary in 2018 and we are delighted that a special cruise, to celebrate this anniversary, has been included in Hebridean's 2018 programme.

It remains a leading arts education charity with a global network of local arts societies, continuing to connect people to the arts and each other and offering a warm welcome to all.

The society's world class lecturers continue to entertain and share the specialist knowledge with members and it believes that the arts enrich peoples' lives.

The Arts Society continues to support the skills of makers and artists, whilst its volunteering programme helps preserve our heritage for future generations to enjoy.

Our Arts Society's (NADFAS) recommended cruise in 2018 is Architectural Gems of Argyll and the Isles departing on 30th October, featuring Accredited Art Society Lecturer, Caroline Knight, FSA. Caroline is an architectural historian, with an MA from the Courtauld Institute of Art. She specialises in British architecture of the 16th to 18th centuries.

Please refer to pages 86 and 87 for full details of this cruise.

sea-changers

The preservation of the cruising environment in which Hebridean Princess operates, and the marine life which it supports, is of great importance to Hebridean Island Cruises. For that reason we are delighted to continue our dedicated partnership with the marine conservation charity, Sea-Changers.

Sea-Changers is a charity with the mission of raising funds for marine conservation, primarily in the UK. Their vision is to create a world where seas and shores are clean and healthy, marine species are protected and where, far from damaging the oceans, those who use the sea for travel or their leisure pursuits, positively contribute to the sustainability of the marine environment.

Since the partnership began, Hebridean guests have raised in excess of £21,000 to support marine conservation work in the UK.

Luskentyre Beach, Isle of Harris

Scottish Islands A-Z

The wildly beautiful coast of Scotland is scattered with hundreds of islands and islets shaped by the relentless pounding of the sea and the ever-changing weather. Sublimely secluded, all are unique, forming a world apart that is little-known and accessible to the very few – yours to explore from the comfort of our delightfully small ship, Hebridean Princess. Experience their magic and mystery; revel in their rich diversity from the Firth of Clyde to the Inner and Outer Hebrides. Come and discover these precious island gems.

Lochranza Castle, Arran

Arran

Firth of Clyde Islands

Influenced by the mild North Atlantic Drift, Arran is a wildlife haven rising to high peaks, including four Corbetts. At the foot of the highest, Goatfell, nestles 16th century red-sandstone Brodick Castle, close to Brodick town. Fifteen miles (24 km) to the north, the 14th century ruined castle of Lochranza was once a royal hunting lodge.

Please see pages 18, 20, 22, 84, 88 and 90.

Barra

Outer Hebrides

Named after a 6th century saint and world-famous for its unique beach airport, Traigh Mòr, Barra is a beautiful, tranquil island with a fascinating history. Golden beaches backed by sandy, wild flower-dotted machair surround a more rugged interior. The main centre is the once prosperous herring port of Castlebay, where the Macneil's medieval fortress, Kisimul Castle, perches on a rocky outcrop offshore.

Please see pages 50, 68, 70, 72, 76, 78 and 80.

Berneray

Outer Hebrides

Berneray, connected by a causeway to North Uist, is a sleepy island of vast shell-sand beaches, hills and a tight-knit, if dispersed community. Little more than 2 miles long and 2 miles wide, Berneray offers solitude and magnificent views over the Sound of Harris.

Please see page 78.

Rothesay Castle, Bute

Bute

Firth of Clyde Islands

Crossed by the Highland Boundary Fault, Bute is an isle of distinctly contrasting landscapes from the bare, rounded and craggy uplands of the north to the lower, undulating and fertile south. Golden beaches fringe the west coast, many with views over the Sound towards Arran. The Victorian resort of Rothesay is the only town.

Please see pages 18, 20, 22, 24, 84, 86, 88 and 90.

Canna

Canna, Small Isles

Inner Hebrides

Joined to Sanday by a causeway, secluded Canna lies less than 5 miles (8 km) off Rum. Dubbed the 'Garden of the Hebrides', this elongated, green and grassy isle is capped by magnetic Compass Hill at 458 feet (140 m) in the north. Canna was one of the earliest Christian settlements, associated with St Columba, who was later adopted as its patron saint.

Please see pages 30, 42 and 46.

Coll

Inner Hebrides

The rocky, wild and virtually treeless island of Coll was first settled in the Stone Age. Dotted with ruined cottages, this bird haven is picturesquely clad in flower-dotted machair, fringed by silver-white beaches, and offers refreshing bike rides and walks.

Please see pages 26, 30, 50, 66, 72 and 80.

Colonsay

Inner Hebrides

Another bird haven, home to some 200 bird species including the elusive corncrake, and 400 species of flora, Colonsay is a landscape of many contrasts from machair to woods, moors to green fields and rocky to sandy cliff-backed shores. Its finest beach is dramatic Kiloran Bay and inland lie the exotic woodland gardens of Colonsay House.

Please see pages 26, 30, 32, 48, 50, 54, 66, 76, and 78.

Cumraes

Firth of Clyde Islands

The contrasting Cumraes afford fine views to the mainland, Arran and Bute. Green and undulating Great Cumrae is home to the only town at Millport, elegantly lining Millport Bay. Here the tiny but beautiful Cathedral of the Isles, regarded as Britain's smallest cathedral, seats only 100 worshippers. Rough and rocky Little Cumrae, held by the Hunters and later by the Montgomeries, was maintained as a royal hunting forest. Its surviving ruins include the castle demolished by Oliver Cromwell's army in 1650 and a small chapel dedicated to St Beya.

Please see pages 18, 84, 86 and 88.

Eigg, Small Isles

Inner Hebrides

Bought out by its islanders in 1997, Eigg has been settled since prehistoric times and was once the seat of the Lord of the Isles. Its rich past is marked by Iron Age forts, a 6th century church, Viking burial mounds and a graveyard that is a moving testament to the 395 MacDonalDs massacred in a cave by the MacLeods in 1577. Rising sheer above the plateau of this wildlife reserve, columnar pitchstone An Sgùrr adds magic and mystery.

Please see pages 28, 32, 38, 42, 48, 72 and 76.

Eriska

Inner Hebrides

'Water-nymph Island' in Gaelic, Eriska is a flat tidal 300 acres (121 ha) island at the entrance to Loch Creran, linked by bridge to the mainland. Privately-owned, it is run as a luxury hotel, based at Scottish Baronial Eriska House, built in 1884 by the Stewarts of Appin, in wooded grounds.

Please see page 32.

Eriskay

Outer Hebrides

The reputation of the tiny, hilly yet well-populated isle of Eriskay extends far beyond its shores. Home to a rare pony breed, once used in the mines, it was here that Bonnie Prince Charlie first stepped onto Scottish soil in 1745. Eriskay is also famed as the site of the sinking of the SS Politician offshore in 1941, which inspired Compton MacKenzie's novel and the 1949 film, 'Whisky Galore'.

Please see pages 50, 68, 70, 76, 78 and 80.

Gigha

Inner Hebrides

Three miles (4.8 km) west of Kintyre, green and fertile Gigha, 'God's' or 'Good Island', is now owned by its community. In addition to dairy farming, goats are reared to produce a distinctive, fruit-shaped cheese - one of the isle's main exports. Ardmish is the only village and site of Achamore House set in 50 acre (20 ha) gardens planted by Sir James Horlick.

Please see pages 50 and 84.

Handa

Inner Hebrides

This small, rocky isle sits across the Sound of Handa from the wildly beautiful west coast of Sutherland. Magnificent, horizontally stratified rocks of Torridonian sandstone to the north-west, weathered through time into ledges, form a perfect habitat for nesting seabirds, making Handa one of the largest colonies in north-western Europe. Puffin have returned, and other species include the red-throated and black-throated diver, eider and shell duck. The island was abandoned by its eight resident families in 1847.

Please see page 44.

Harris

Outer Hebrides

Historically and geographically apart from Lewis, Harris is a small region of many contrasts, offering wonderful walks and the beauty of Luskenyre beach on its sandy western shores. Rodel boasts the finest Pre-Reformation church in the Western Isles and the Harris tweeds produced here are world-famous. Although tenacious Gaelic strongholds today, Harris and neighbouring Lewis were the last of the Hebrides to adopt the language.

Please see pages 38, 42, 72, 78 and 80.

Holy Isle

Firth of Clyde Islands

Located across Lamlash Bay, Holy Isle has a long history as a sacred site; a spring or Holy Well held to have healing properties, the hermit cave of 6th century monk Saint Molaise and evidence of a 13th century monastery can be found here and there is evidence of some runic writing on the roof of the cave of Saint Molaise.

Please see pages 20, 84 and 90.

Iona

Inner Hebrides

The exiled Irish prince and missionary St Columba reached Iona in 563 to found his community, landing at pebbled St Columba's Bay in the south, as the legend goes. Originally dating from the 12th century, the restored abbey remains a much-revered place of pilgrimage. An enjoyable walk across the windswept machair leads to the Bay at the Back of the Ocean, with its Spouting Cave, facing the open Atlantic and America.

Please see pages 26, 30, 46, 48, 50, 54, 66, 72 and 76.

Islay

Inner Hebrides

Erstwhile seat of the MacDonalDs, Lords of the Isles, mild Islay is renowned for the peaty single malts of its eight operating distilleries. Islay abounds in birdlife at the RSPB Loch Gruinart Nature Reserve, hub of a barnacle geese colony and historic treasures from the 18th century round church at Bowmore to the late 9th century High Cross of Kildalton.

Please see pages 24, 26, 30, 32, 52, 54, 56, 64, 66 and 84.

Isle Martin, Summer Isles

Highland Isles

Isle Martin is an uninhabited island in Loch Broom, on the west coast of Scotland. It is the closest of the Summer Isles to Ullapool and has been the site of a monastery, a herring curing station and a flour mill. Now recognised as a bird sanctuary, it is owned and managed by a community trust.

Please see page 28.

Jura

Jura

Inner Hebrides

Crowned by the landmark Paps, Jura is a place of wild beauty offering a haven to a wide range of wildlife, including some 6,500 red deer. Glaciated raised beaches are a marked feature of its western shores, with the treacherous Corryvreckan Whirlpool to the north. Jura has one tiny village of 200 residents, Craighouse, where the small Jura Distillery has produced a unique single malt since 1810.

Please see pages 24, 26, 52, 66, 76 and 84.

Kerrera

Inner Hebrides

Tiny Kerrera tranquilly guards the entrance to Oban from its two sheltered harbours at Ardentrive Bay and Horse Shoe Bay. Historically a stepping-stone for cattle drovers between Mull and the mainland, this fertile and hilly isle is crowned by the Renaissance MacDougall stronghold of Gylen Castle.

Please see page 24.

Butt of Lewis

Lewis

Outer Hebrides

Lewis is the largest and most northerly of the Hebrides, forming one island with Harris. Most of its wild landscape, rising to 1,800 feet (549 m) in the south, is cloaked in peat bog - hence its Gaelic name 'Leodhas', meaning 'marshy'. The Callanish Standing Stones and well-preserved Carloway Broch stand testament to its occupation since prehistoric times. The port of Stornoway is the only town.

Please see pages 38, 44, 48, 78 and 80.

Lunga, Treshnish Isles

Inner Hebrides

Designated a Site of Special Scientific Interest, Lunga is rich in plant life with many rare and endangered species native to the island. Described as a 'green jewel in a peacock sea' Lunga was inhabited until 1857 and the remains of the ruined village and its blackhouses can still be seen today.

Please see page 44.

Mingulay, Berneray and Pabbay

Outer Hebrides

At the south tip of the Hebrides, these three uninhabited Bishop's Isles, swathed in white sandy beaches and flower-scattered machair, are awe-inspiring from the sea. Around Berneray 600 feet (183 m) cliffs, nested by thousands of seabirds, tower up dramatically from the sea. In the north, the Lewisian gneiss 'Hermit Island' of Pabbay, settled by an early Christian community, as its Old Norse name implies, is an ideal spot on which to land.

Please see page 72.

Muck, Small Isles

Inner Hebrides

The flat and fertile Isle of Muck scattered with wild flowers and rimmed by silver shell-sand beaches, is a peaceful haven for puffin, kittiwake, fulmar, shearwater, sea-eagle and the porpoises that swim off its shores. Port Mòr is the only village, where the tearoom and craft shop serves delicious home baking.

Please see pages 30, 50, 74 and 76.

Mull

Inner Hebrides

Fringed by an indented 300 miles (480 km) coastline, Mull is an island of sweeping moors broken occasionally by picturesque clearings. Colourful Georgian-fronted Tobermory is the capital and Craignure the main port, south-east of which lie Scottish Baronial Torosay Castle and ancient Duart Castle, seat of the Macleans.

Please see pages 26, 32, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 54, 68, 72, 76, and 78.

Oronsay

Inner Hebrides

Oronsay is a small tidal island linked to Colonsay by a causeway known as An Traigh or 'The Strand'. The island has no facilities of its own and is entirely dependent upon its tidal access to and from Colonsay. The whole of the island of Oronsay is designated a Site of Special Scientific Interest and Special Protection Area for its chough and corncrake populations.

Please see page 26.

Raasay

Inner Hebrides

Located between Skye and the mainland, Raasay, 'Isle of the Roe Deer', is relatively low-lying in the north and mountainous in the south, rising to 1,453 feet (443 m) on central Dun Caan. Visited by Boswell and Johnson in 1773, the island is most famous as the birthplace of Scottish Renaissance poet Sorley Maclean. The main village is Inverarish.

Please see pages 28, 70, 74 and 80.

Rum, Small Isles

Inner Hebrides

Capped by Askival (2,664 ft/ 812 m) in the rocky Cuillin, the wildlife haven of Rum is a National Nature Reserve and research centre. Owned by Scottish Natural Heritage since 1957, it was bought by the Lancashire industrialist John Bullough in 1879. At the turn of the 20th century, his playboy son, Sir George built the folly of Kinloch Castle, which remains a time-capsule of those headier Edwardian days.

Please see pages 28, 42, 44, 68, 70, 76 and 78.

Sanda

Firth of Clyde Islands

Sanda, 'Sandaigh' in Gaelic, is a small, privately-owned island off the southern tip of the Kintyre Peninsula. An important bird migration and breeding point, it is a Site of Special Scientific Interest (SSSI), housing the first bird observatory on the west coast of Scotland. Although the island is treeless today, north-western Wood Hill indicates that this was not always so.

Please see pages 24 and 84.

Village Bay, St Kilda

St Kilda

Outer Hebrides

The last 36 Gaelic-speaking residents of St Kilda evacuated the main island of Hirta at their own request in 1930, thereby ending some 5,000 years of continuous settlement. Behind them they left a deserted village that survives today as an outdoor museum, roamed by Soay sheep. Renowned for its awe-inspiring bird cliffs and stacs, St Kilda's remote and exposed Atlantic location makes visits weather-dependent. The archipelago is now a double UNESCO World Heritage Site.

Please see pages 44, 46 and 48.

Shiant Isles

Shiant Isles

Outer Hebrides

Privately owned by the Nicolson family since 1937, the Shiant Isles are geologically outliers of Skye, ringed by basalt rocks, reminiscent of Staffa and the Giant's Causeway, that teem with thousands of seabirds. Mythically haunted by kelpies, the isles are a renowned wildlife haven for common seals, basking sharks, puffin, herring gull, oyster catcher, eider, shag and many more.

Please see pages 36, 44, 46 and 48.

Skye

Inner Hebrides

The largest of the Inner Hebrides, Skye was connected to mainland Scotland by the Skye Bridge in 1996. Created volcanically some 60 million years ago, its awe-inspiring landscapes are a paradise for walkers and climbers. Bizarre rock formations punctuate The Quiraing, with the Old Man of Storr, Trotternish to the north-east and Vaternish to the north-west.

Please see pages 28, 32, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 48, 50, 70, 74, 76, 78 and 80.

Staffa

Inner Hebrides

Staffa, named 'Stave' or 'Pillar Island' by the Vikings, lying 6 miles (10 km) west of Mull, was formed volcanically at the same time as the Giant's Causeway, cooling into mainly hexagonal black basalt columns. Cliffs rising to 131 feet (40 m) are riddled with caves, the most famous of which is Fingal's Cave at Staffa's southern tip, named after legendary Irish hero, Finn MacCool.

Please see pages 26, 46, 50 and 54.

Tanera Mòr Post Office

Tanera Mòr, Summer Isles

Highland Isles

Tanera Mòr is the largest of the Summer Isles, a cluster of scenic islets located off the coast of Ullapool. Atop a lush, grassy hill, the flat summit of Meall Mòr commands panoramic views over the surrounding area. The unique private post office issues its own stamps, and opens out of hours especially for our visits.

Please see pages 28, 36 and 74.

Sandaig Museum, Tiree

Tiree

Inner Hebrides

Enjoying long hours of sunshine, mild, fertile Tiree is the most westerly of the Inner Hebrides. This wild flower and birdlife haven, with shell-sand blown machair and surf-washed beaches, is much favoured by artists for its natural beauty and colour. Duns and brochs bear witness to its ancient history, while the white Thatched House Museum in Sandaig reveals its more recent crofting past.

Please see pages 26, 30, 48, 76 and 80.

The Uists

Outer Hebrides

A paradise for walkers, the tranquil Uists abound in geological and historical contrasts. The low-lying bird-haven of North Uist, scattered with green-blue lochans, is Norse and Protestant by tradition, and a world apart from the Catholic and Gaelic stronghold of South Uist. The second-largest of the Outer Isles, South Uist's softer, undulating landscape is carpeted in flower-decked machair and fringed by dunes.

Please see pages 38, 44, 68, 78 and 80.

Sheila's Cottage, Ulva

Ulva

Inner Hebrides

Situated off Mull, the tiny isle of Ulva is a traffic-free haven covering barely 2 square miles (5 km²) and home to only 16 permanent residents. One of the most ancient settlements in the Western Isles and erstwhile seat of Clan MacQuarrie, the island is now privately owned by the Howard family. Ulva's past is well documented at Sheila's Cottage Museum on the west coast.

Please see pages 26, 44, 50 and 72.

Vatersay

Vatersay

Outer Hebrides

The most southerly of the inhabited Outer Isles, Vatersay is sliced in two by a narrow bar of sand and machair. With dramatic beaches, spectacular wildlife and a history dating from the Bronze Age, this beautiful isle has much to offer. The population of just over 70 residents is centred mainly around Vatersay town in the south.

6 nights including 2 Gala Dinners

This cruise also departs on 6th November 2018

Join Hebridean Princess on her maiden voyage of 2018 as she uncovers some of the delights of Argyll's secret coast, exploring Britain's longest sea loch and some of the diverse islands which pepper the Firth of Clyde.

Sailing from Greenock we head to the delightful island of Great Cumbrae where the 'city' of Millport boasts the smallest cathedral in Britain. Inveraray Jail, one of the finest and best preserved jail and courtroom complexes in the world, plays host to our next visit ahead of a guided tour of Strachur House built by General John Campbell in the 1780s.

The Firth of Clyde is one of the largest areas of sheltered deep water in the British Isles and the area's many long lochs penetrate far into the Highlands giving rise to dramatic fjord-like scenery all waiting to be explored.

Our first port of call is the Isle of Bute where we discover the Victorian Neo-Gothic Mansion of Mount Stuart House. Stepping ashore on the Isle of Arran we explore the grand baronial castle, formal gardens and woodland country park at Brodick.

At the Robert Burns Birthplace Museum we delve into the history of Scotland's favourite son, before taking a guided tour of the remarkable Culzean Castle, associated with the Kennedy family since the 14th century.

Spending a full day at the stunning 18th century Dumfries House we appreciate its 2,000 acre setting, neoclassical architecture and Thomas Chippendale furniture, ahead of a visit to Brodick Castle on Arran and a scenic cruise of Loch Fyne.

From our berth at Strachur we venture to the home of Sir Charles and Lady MacLean, Strachur House, with its sheltered flower garden, before enjoying a private visit to Ardkinglas House, generally considered to be architect Sir Robert Lorimer's finest work. Leaving Greenock, and heading around the Mull of Kintyre, we take this last opportunity to enjoy the Clyde islands in spring as we voyage to our home port of Oban and our first visit of the year to some of the southern Hebridean islands.

After navigating Loch Striven we steam south through the Firth of Clyde, taking in views of Ailsa Craig, ahead of a landing on the privately owned Sanda Island. Our final port of call on the Clyde is Campbeltown where we look forward to tasting a wee dram at Springbank Distillery, established in 1828 and located in the once proclaimed 'whisky capital of the world', before we round the Mull of Kintyre, on passage to Port Ellen on the Isle of Islay.

At Kilmartin Glen we explore some of the 800 ancient monuments to discover the rich archaeological legacy for which the area is famous.

Tuesday 15th to Tuesday 22nd May 2018
7 nights including 2 Gala Dinners

The western seaboard of Scotland is home to some of the finest gardens in Europe, where unusual and exotic plants flourish in the warm climate of the North Atlantic Drift. Many were planted in the Victorian era and designed to complement grand country homes.

Richard Baines was a lecturer in horticulture before becoming Curator of Logan Botanic Garden, part of The Royal Botanic Garden Edinburgh. A regular contributor to gardening magazines he has participated in many Gardeners' Question Time panels, lectures on various topics and has appeared on both TV and radio. His plant specialities include rhododendrons, hardy palms and southern hemisphere exotics.

At Loch Ewe we explore the lush oasis of Inverewe Garden, before steaming north to Ullapool and marvelling at the dramatic Corrieshalloch Gorge and its spectacular waterfalls.

Little Loch Broom is home to the ancient walled garden at Dundonnell House which boasts a restored Edwardian glasshouse, riverside walk and arboretum. The coastal garden at neighbouring Durnamuck offers a rich mix of herbaceous borders, trees and shrubs, wild meadow and stunning views.

Loch Dunvegan is where we enjoy five acres of formal castle gardens, before arriving at the hidden gem of Lip na Cloiche, a private and self-made garden in an extremely remote location on the Isle of Mull. On a headland overlooking the Atlantic, Glengorm Castle plays host to our next visit; on a clear day views extend as far as the Outer Hebrides.

Nestling on the shore of Loch Linnhe, Ard Daraich is a magical hill garden and a delight for garden lovers.

The gardens at Ardtornish Estate were sculpted out of a rocky hillside creating a natural landscape; the late nineteenth century planting was intended to be enjoyed by sea approach, with the towers of Ardtornish House springing from a semi-circle of trees.

First operated in 1989, we are replicating this delightful cruise in celebration of our 30th anniversary season with visits to six different islands, a passage to the Outer Hebrides and a visit to the famous garden at Inverewe.

Portree, Skye

Departing from Oban, we enter the famous Tobermory Bay for a stretch of legs in the colourful Georgian capital, whilst a venture ashore on Eigg highlights the stark contrast between lush vegetation and rocky peak. Sailing onwards, the famous Black Ridge of the Cuillins on Skye may well be visible as Hebridean Princess steams into Loch Scresort on Rum for a visit to Kinloch Castle.

Continuing to the Sleat peninsula and Armadale on Skye we discover the Clan Donald Centre, set in the landscaped gardens of the ruined castle, before berthing at Kyle of Lochalsh for an excursion to the most photographed castle in Britain, Eilean Donan.

Plockton is a conservation village and we explore the bay bordered by palm trees, ahead of landing once more on Skye at the sheltered natural harbour of Portree. Heading northwards to Gairloch we marvel at the tropical plants that flourish outdoors at Inverewe Garden, but would have to be grown under glass at Kew Gardens!

Sailing from Oban we head for our peaceful overnight anchorage, before continuing to the secluded Isle of Canna for a full day of cultural and natural history exploration.

A cruise past the Balmacara Estate leads us to Inverewe Garden with its heritage garden, comprising species from across the globe and created from a barren wilderness in the 19th century. Corrieshalloch Gorge is one of the finest box canyons in the British Isles and here we marvel at the giant waterfall as it cascades through a wilderness rich in flora and fauna.

The Village, Hirta, St Kilda

Before sailing the Sea of the Hebrides, we pause to wonder at the magnificent feat of engineering that is Skerryvore Lighthouse from the museum housed at Hynish on Tiree.

Steaming overnight to St Kilda, we cruise beneath the seabird cliffs of Stac Lee and Boreray to Village Bay on the main island of Hirta. Here, weather permitting, we land ashore to explore the now preserved village, abandoned 86 years previously. An afternoon sail takes us past the Flannan Isles where, in December 1900, three lighthouse keepers mysteriously disappeared.

Classical Inspiration

Tuesday 3rd to Tuesday 10th July 2018

7 nights including 2 Gala Dinners

The beauty of Scotland's Highlands and Islands has inspired numerous artists, composers and musicians, most famously the dramatic cathedral-like Fingal's Cave on Staffa. This cruise uncovers the talent of local musicians and artists who have also been stimulated by the unique atmosphere of the environs in which they live.

The Crinan Hotel is a renowned gallery venue on Scotland's west coast, where contemporary artists Frances Macdonald and her son Ross Ryan regularly exhibit. The picturesque village of Tayvallich plays host to scenic strolls before we cross to Islay for a visit to Islay House Square, built by Walter Campbell in the 1790s to house servants and workshops. After tasting a wee dram at Laphroaig Distillery, we conclude our day with a performance by musicians from the Cantilena Festival.

A cruise of the narrow Sound of Islay takes us to Colonsay where we can explore Colonsay House Garden, ahead of a landing on the sacred island of Iona, birthplace of Christianity in Scotland. A local boat leads us to Staffa and Fingal's Cave with its spectacular hexagonal basalt columns; its sheer size and eerie sounds produced by the waves have encouraged music, legends and modern art.

7 nights including 2 Gala Dinners

Whether you are a keen walker or just prefer to take it easy and soak up the scenery, this cruise combines the best of Skye and the Inner Isles together with the rich diversity of the southern Outer Isles of Eriskay and Vatersay.

Islands of Glory

Tuesday 11th to
Tuesday 18th September 2018

7 nights including 2 Gala Dinners

The arc of the Outer Hebrides tenaciously shields the Inner Isles from the Atlantic Ocean which has so dramatically sculpted their landscapes. This unforgettable voyage discovers the diversity of these two different island chains, separated by the crystal waters of the Sea of the Hebrides.

Ashore on the Jurassic Isle of Eigg, rich in history and wildlife, we enjoy tranquil walks against the sheer rocks of An Sgùrr ahead of a cruise of Skye's spectacular south-west coast. Across the Little Minch, explore some of Scotland's most dramatic scenery on a kaleidoscopic tour of Harris taking in a weaving demonstration. In the afternoon contrast the more rugged, mountainous appeal of North Harris and the tiny isle of Scalpay.

Cruising the crescent arc of the Outer Isles we make a thrilling beach landing onto one of the uninhabited bird isles of Pabbay, Mingulay or Berneray, abandoned by their last residents in 1912. From Castlebay we travel through the Macneil stronghold of Barra to their medieval fortress of Kisimul Castle.

Returning to the Inner Hebrides and Iona where St Columba founded his historic community in 563, savour the serenity of the restored Benedictine Abbey. The traffic-free island of Ulva proudly displays its crofting heritage at Sheila's Cottage Museum. Secrets of the Western Isles

Tuesday 25th September to Tuesday 2nd October 2018

7 nights including 2 Gala Dinners

Original cruise operated in 2008

Islands are quintessentially places of mystery and mystique and nowhere more so than in the Hebrides, Europe's best-kept secret. Wondrously carved by nature, each is unique, concealing precious secrets that are ours to share on this cruise which was first operated in our 10th season of 2008.

Prince's Beach, Eriskay

The wild, deer isle of Jura is a breathtaking first landfall, a world apart from the soft, quiet beauty of Colonsay and the woodland gardens of Colonsay House. The tiny, sacred isle of Iona still upholds Celtic Christian tradition as St Columba's final refuge in AD 563 and we absorb its spirituality at the medieval abbey. Landing on Tiree, ringed by silver shell-sands, we learn of the great feat of engineering that is Skerryvore Lighthouse.

After relishing the peacefulness of the fertile wildlife haven of Muck, we head for the picturesque charms of Barra on a captivating island tour. Across the causeway to discover idyllic Eriskay and the white sands where Bonnie Prince Charlie first stepped on Scottish soil.

The magnetic Black Cuillin draws us over the sea to Skye to walk in the awe-inspiring cauldron of Loch Coruisk before cruising south to Eigg to savour its rugged appeal on invigorating walks beneath the rocky volcanic plug of An Sgùrr.

Now a nature reserve, neighbouring Rum breathes mystery at Kinloch Castle, Sir George Bullough's once opulent hunting lodge. Onwards to Mull and a stroll along the bright Georgian quayside at Tobermory concludes our voyage.

THE ARTS SOCIETY

Architectural Gems of Argyll and The Isles

Tuesday, 30th October to
Tuesday, 6th November 2018

7 nights including 2 Gala Dinners

Hebridean Island Cruises is proud to offer this special Historical Interest cruise to celebrate the society's 50th Anniversary.

Embark on a journey of architectural exploration as this cruise introduces us to a myriad of design styles and rare private viewings, often by a member of the family, including fine houses, baronial mansions, private apartments and an arts and crafts masterpiece.

Finlaystone House

Hebridean Princess, Inveraray Castle

Guest Speaker
Caroline Knight, FSA

Caroline Knight is an Accredited Art Society Lecturer and architectural historian, with an MA from the Courtauld Institute of Art. She specialises in British architecture of the 16th – 18th centuries, and is an independent lecturer. She has researched the history of Kensington Palace for the Curators of the State Apartments, has contributed to several books, and has published many academic articles.

From Greenock we travel to Finlaystone House and are welcomed by the MacMillan family, ahead of an afternoon spent at Hill House appreciating the beautifully restored arts and crafts and Art Nouveau masterpiece designed by celebrated architect Charles Rennie Mackintosh.

Cruising Britain's longest sea loch, Loch Fyne, to Crarae where the fairytale Inveraray Castle, seat of the Dukes of Argyll, opens the private apartments for us. Going ashore at Strachur we visit Ardkinglas House, designed by Sir Robert Lorimer and built in 1905, before travelling to Strachur House, residence of Sir Charles and Lady MacLean.

A relaxing sail through the Kyles of Bute brings us to the island of the same name where Mount Stuart is testament to generations of Stuart passion and flamboyance. Dumfries House was saved by the intervention of His Royal Highness, The Prince Charles, Duke of Rothesay in 2007 and combines the neoclassical architecture of Robert Adam with the furniture of Thomas Chippendale; here we spend a full day with lunch on the estate.

Seating barely 100 people and built in 1851, on land owned by the Boyle family, The Cathedral of the Isles on Great Cumbrae is reputed to be Britain's smallest cathedral. Our final visit is the sumptuous and privately owned Ardgowan House.

Argyll's Secret Coast

Tuesday 6th to Monday 12th November 2018

6 nights including 2 Gala Dinners

This cruise also departs on 1st March 2018

Join Hebridean Princess as she uncovers some of the delights of Argyll's secret coast, exploring Britain's longest sea loch and some of the diverse islands which pepper the Firth of Clyde.

Sailing from Greenock we head to the delightful island of Great Cumbrae where the 'city' of Millport boasts the smallest cathedral in Britain. Next the sumptuous and privately owned Ardgowan House awaits our arrival. The Ardgowan estate has been held by the Stewart family since the early 15th century and the present house dates to 1797.

Known as 'Scotland in Miniature' Arran is home to only one working distillery and here we learn the art of whisky making, before heading to Tarbert to explore on foot and take in views of Loch Fyne from the ancient castle.

Cruising further into Britain's longest sea loch, Loch Fyne, we venture ashore at Crarae to discover Scotland's rural history at Auchindrain Township Museum. Inveraray Jail, one of the finest and best preserved jail and courtroom complexes in the world, plays host to our next visit ahead of a guided tour of Strachur House built by General John Campbell in the 1780s.

A scenic cruise of Loch Fyne precedes an exploration of the Isle of Bute, a popular destination in Victorian times during the heyday of holidays 'Doon the Watter'.

Our final afternoon is spent at Hill House appreciating the beautifully restored arts and crafts and Art Nouveau masterpiece designed by celebrated architect Charles Rennie Mackintosh.

Sea Lochs of the Lower Clyde

Monday 12th to Sunday 18th November 2018

6 nights including 2 Gala Dinners

This cruise also departs on 7th March 2018

The Firth of Clyde is one of the largest areas of sheltered deep water in the British Isles and the area's many long lochs penetrate far into the Highlands giving rise to dramatic fjord-like scenery all waiting to be explored.

Our first port of call is the Isle of Bute where we discover the Victorian Neo-Gothic Mansion of Mount Stuart House. Stepping ashore on the Isle of Arran we explore the grand baronial castle, formal gardens and woodland country park at Brodick.

Brodick Castle, Arran

At the Robert Burns Birthplace Museum we delve into the history of Scotland's favourite son, before taking a guided tour of the remarkable Culzean Castle, associated with the Kennedy family since the 14th century.

Described as 'one of the showpieces of Galloway' the 75 sculptured acres at Castle Kennedy are one of Scotland's most important historical landscaped gardens, with rhododendrons, championship trees and rare species. Cruising north, the dramatic sea cliffs of Ailsa Craig offer tantalising views.

Guarding the entrance to Lamlash Bay, Holy Isle has been a place of worship and meditation since the 12th century. Here we stretch our legs ahead of a landing on the privately owned nature reserve of Little Cumbrae.

Picturesque Holy Loch provides the setting for our visit to Historic Kilmun and the Argyll Mausoleum. The name 'Holy Loch' is believed to date from the 6th century, when Saint Munn landed there after leaving Ireland.

Finally, we appreciate the breath-taking panorama of Loch Long and Loch Goil, surrounded by the mountains of the Arrochar Alps.

Refreshments on deck

Columba Restaurant, Breakfast

Canapés on the Skye Deck

On board A-Z

Animals

We regret that no animals are permitted on board the vessel other than assistance dogs accompanying disabled passengers.

Binoculars

Wildlife lovers may wish to bring binoculars as there are only a limited number on board for loan.

Communications

There are iPads in the Library and Wi-Fi access is available.

Mobile phones should be switched off in public rooms. The cellular system in the Highlands and Islands is somewhat patchy and reception can be irregular.

In an emergency, the ship can be reached by satellite phone, full details of which will be forwarded prior to your cruise.

Dining and restaurant arrangements

The Columba Restaurant is sufficiently large for all guests to dine at the same time. The majority of tables are for two, but should guests wish to dine together we shall be delighted to reserve a table for a maximum of eight. Guests travelling on their own will be seated at a larger table, usually hosted by an Officer, unless they indicate otherwise.

Special diets: We can cater for most dietary preferences, with the exception of strict kosher and one or two other regimes. Special requests should be included in the Pre-Cruise Questionnaire; our reservations staff will be pleased to advise you.

Dress and footwear

Daytime: During the day dress is casual. It is advisable to bring suitable clothing for the area in which you will be cruising.

Evening: For dinner in the evening, guests prefer to dress more formally, with a jacket and tie for gentlemen and the equivalent for ladies.

Gala evenings: The recommended dress code for Gala evenings is black tie for gentlemen and evening wear for ladies, although this is by no means mandatory.

On these evenings, the Officers will wear formal dress. The number of Gala evenings depends on the length of the cruise, but as a guideline, two formal Gala Dinners will be held during a seven-night cruise.

Footwear: Non-slip shoes should be worn on deck and in the ship's small boats when going ashore. Some cruises visit remote locations where heavy-soled shoes or walking boots are recommended for shore visits and serious walking.

Footloose cruises: In addition to walking boots, we recommend that guests protect themselves against the unpredictable weather with waterproof clothing; we would stress that jeans are considered unsuitable. A reasonably sized rucksack would also be useful.

Electricity supply

The electricity supply on Hebridean Princess is 240v AC and standard UK 3-pin sockets are provided in cabins. If guests wish to use 110v equipment, a transformer will be required – a limited supply is available on board for loan. The ship also carries adaptors for European and US style plugs, obtainable from the Housekeeper.

Going ashore

Since many of the places on our itineraries are unsuitable for berthing alongside, Hebridean Princess is equipped with sturdy and seaworthy tenders to transport guests ashore. Buoyancy aids are provided and must be worn in all small boat operations. Please note, however, that use of the ship's tenders does require a certain degree of agility. If in doubt, guests with physical disabilities and elderly or infirm passengers should contact our reservations staff before booking.

Our itineraries are planned to allow frequent visits ashore to interesting and unusual places, but participation is by no means compulsory. The emphasis is on pleasing one's self. As alternatives, we can usually suggest an independent stroll or a more serious walk ashore, perhaps a bike ride or, as many guests have discovered, the relaxation of staying on board.

Gratuities

Hebridean operates a 'no tipping' policy.

Hebridean shop

There is a small shop on board selling souvenirs and a basic supply of essentials. Cigarettes and tobacco products are not sold on board. As many of the areas we visit are remote, it may not be possible to purchase specialised items such as specific camera equipment, batteries, etc.

On board leisure

Hebridean Princess boasts a well-stocked library, and a card and games area with a range of board games, jigsaws, chess and backgammon. Gym equipment is available on the Waterfront Deck. There is no organised gambling, apart from the occasional 'frog race' to raise money for charity. Each cabin is equipped with satellite television; should you wish to view a DVD in your cabin, a number of DVD players are available for this purpose and DVDs may be borrowed from the Library.

Payment of shipboard accounts

The currency on board is pounds sterling. Payment of shipboard accounts may be made in sterling, either debit or credit Visa or Mastercards, or cheques; sterling travellers cheques are also accepted.

Sailing

Most sailing on Hebridean Princess is scheduled to take place over breakfast and lunch, apart from overnight sailings to St. Kilda. Smaller ships tend to have a certain amount of vibration and some noise is inevitable when the main engines are running. At night, a sound insulated generator supplies domestic power to the vessel.

Smoking

Smoking is not allowed inside the vessel at any time and is not permitted in cabins. Smoking is allowed only on the outer decks, and guests occupying balcony cabins are asked to show consideration to other balcony users.

Stairs

Please note that there are no lifts (elevators) on board Hebridean Princess and, although well equipped with handrails, some of the ship's stairways are steep, particularly those from the Princess Deck to the Waterfront and Hebridean Decks.

Valuables

A small safe is provided in your cabin to secure valuables. Hebridean cannot accept any responsibility for loss or damage to guests' valuables.

What you need to know

Disabled facilities

If wheelchair users wish to cruise with us, they must be accompanied by a fare-paying able-bodied companion to assist them on board and ashore. Wheelchair access may be limited. Entrances to the vessel have raised coamings and almost all cabins have a raised lip or step from bedroom to bathroom. Please note that bedroom doors are no wider than 70cm. As the vessel does not carry a supply of narrow wheelchairs for general use, guests should check that their own chair is of a suitable width.

Although well equipped with handrails, some of the ship's stairways are steep, particularly those from the Princess Deck to the Waterfront and Hebridean Decks. As there are no lifts (elevators), the severely disabled or handicapped may find their enjoyment of the cruise impaired if they experience difficulty in moving between decks and over coamings between cabins and bathrooms.

Fitness on board and ashore

Many of our visits ashore call for reasonable walking ability if guests are to gain maximum enjoyment from the cruise. As many are to lesser-known and remote places, there are frequently landing stages, steps, slopes and rough ground to contend with. We therefore reserve the right not to take a guest on a particular visit if we feel that it would be beyond his or her capabilities or might affect the enjoyment of fellow guests. If you are uncertain of your ability to participate in these activities, please contact our reservations staff to discuss the route in detail before confirming your booking. Those requiring wheelchairs and/or regular assistance in order to participate in shore visits must be accompanied by a fare-paying, able-bodied companion to assist them.

We can usually organise alternative self-guided walks ashore for less agile guests to enjoy at their own pace, or make other arrangements, including taxis, at guests' own cost.

Health

When booking, guests must advise Hebridean of particular health conditions necessitating special precautions and of any subsequent change. It is the responsibility of each guest to inform Hebridean of any prevailing condition which may affect them on board or ashore and, equally, other guests' ability to enjoy to the full any shore visits during their cruise. Please refer to the section 'Fitness on board and ashore' relating to the requirements for able-bodied companions.

Itinerary detail and variations

Cruise itineraries are published in good faith but may have to be altered on board to take into account climatic, geographical, political and other factors over which Hebridean or its agents have no control. We shall do our best to minimise alterations and their potential effect on guests.

While the Captain will do his utmost to follow the itinerary, he will, where appropriate, adapt the route to suit the prevailing and forecast weather conditions. The Captain's decision is always final. If such amendments need to be made at short notice, we cannot make any financial adjustments. Please see page 4 of the 2018 Cruise Diary & Tariff for our Conditions of Business.

Medical facilities

Guests are advised to pack all necessary medical supplies, as our ports of call are generally off the beaten track and may lack facilities. If guests intend to bring any electrical or electronic medical equipment, they should first check with our reservations staff that it is compatible with the ship's 240v electricity supply.

Hebridean Princess does not routinely carry a doctor as she is never far from land. Guests should ensure that, to their knowledge, they are fit to take a holiday during which immediate medical assistance may not be available. Arrangements to consult a doctor on land can be made at relatively short notice and assistance can be summoned quickly in the event of an emergency. Any medical and repatriation costs will be charged to the guest's account.

The ship's Officers are trained in first aid and a comprehensive medical supply is kept for emergency use.

Minors

We regret that children under the age of nine cannot be accommodated.

Single room occupancy

Ten of our cabins are designed and let on a single occupancy basis. Once these cabins have been booked, solo guests requesting a double cabin for single occupancy will be charged a supplement of 85% of the per-person fare for that cabin grade. Please refer to the Cabin Facilities and Dimensions Guide in the inside back cover or contact our reservations staff for further details.

HEBRIDEAN RIVER CRUISES

A Hebridean River Cruise is a truly unique way to see central Europe. From on board the elegant river cruiser, Royal Crown, you can sail into the very heart of iconic towns and romantic cities and explore the rich history and colourful centres this part of the world has to offer.

The Hebridean Difference - Genuinely all-inclusive cruises

Hebridean river cruises are all-inclusive; not an empty promise, but a Hebridean pledge to ensure that you have a carefree holiday both on board and ashore.

Each cruise includes...

- Accompanied flights from London Heathrow and return, together with assistance and pre-flight refreshments at the outbound departure terminal. Overseas transfers to and from the vessel are also included.
- All meals and snacks on board and ashore as shown in the itineraries.
- Selected wines of the day, served at the table to complement your meal, plus all other house wines and spirits, including Champagne by the glass (shipped from Hebridean Princess!), soft drinks and beers, tea, coffee and other hot drinks.
- Shore visits, entrance fees and transport to and from shore visits, as shown in the itineraries.
- All gratuities are included in your cruise fare both on board and ashore.
- Renowned guest speakers accompany each Hebridean river cruise. Passionate about their subject, these captivating orators bring each itinerary to life.

Hebridean's European river cruises are more enchanting than ever before with exciting itineraries on the Dutch and Belgium Waterways, Rhine, Main and Danube rivers, providing you with time to notice the small things and allowing you to wonder at how past generations managed to tend steep vineyards or scale the walls of indomitable castles hanging precariously above the river bank.

Each of our itineraries, all enhanced by a passionate and renowned guest speaker, has been carefully planned to ensure that the romance and history of each port of call is brought to life – and for those who prefer a longer holiday, our Grand Voyages provide a choice of stunning and unforgettable cruises.

With our own personnel accompanying every Hebridean river cruise you can sit back and relax in the knowledge that Hebridean's legendary service and attention to detail will form part of a truly memorable holiday – and each cruise will also have that special Hebridean ingredient that no other cruise line can replicate.
