

Variety Cruises
The Yacht Cruise Experience

The Variety Cruises Small Ships

Consider the possibilities

Dear Partner,

To trace our origins you would have to backtrack to 1949 when yet another war's dust was settling in Greece. It was then when my father Diogenis Venetopoulos a historian-turned-tour-guide stood high above the Port of Piraeus overlooking a fleet of wooden Caiques, envisioning a better way to connect the world by educating curious travelers. 19 years later we owned our first small ship "The Freedom" (in Greek: Ελευθέριος) with which our adventure began.

Today, Variety Cruises owns and operates 12 small ships and yachts and offers scheduled cruises and charters in 10 different destinations from Costa Rica and Panama to Madagascar and the Seychelles. Over the years our extended family grew to over 300 loyal employees and provided a warm and attentive service to over 200,000 satisfied past clients (recorded), making Variety Cruises one of the leading yacht cruise lines worldwide. Variety Cruises' yachts and motorsailers are small enough to dock in marinas and small ports alongside private mega yachts or anchor in secluded bays, combining the world's best destinations with the off-the-beaten track locales often otherwise inaccessible. Our ships are built to the latest SOLAS (Safety at sea) specifications. They are certified by International certification societies such as RINA or ABS, insured by Lloyd's of London and are perfectly suited to nurture our vision of delivering a private yacht cruise experience without sacrificing comfort and safety.

The majority of our ships are vessels accommodating up to 50 guests with a crew of 20, while our largest yacht so far, the Variety Voyager, is host to 72 guests with a crew of 32. We designed and built our first Voyager Class vessel to respond to the need to perform cruises in destinations requiring a larger and faster ship.

Over the past years, we have established business relationships with main stream and Specialist Tour Operators, Group Operators, Travel Agents, Incentive Houses and non-profit Associations based on trust. Several of them still exist 47 years later and this is an achievement which we are very proud of.

This brochure will give you a very good insight on our fleet of motor yachts and motorsailers and we invite you to explore the possibilities for your clients to live and cruise better on board our small ships.

Welcome to Variety Cruises!

Lakis Venetopoulos.
